DAY 2 | EXPLORE COLONIAL HANOI, A WALK BACK IN TIME

Hanoi – Hanoi is relatively small and runs at quite an unhurried pace for a capital city. Resting in the Red River delta region, the center is a mix of tree-lined avenues, maze-like back streets with lively merchants' stores, temples, and lakes, and has many fine colonial buildings. At 8:00 am, delve into Hanoi's colorful history. Learn about the life and times of former President Ho Chi Minh, who played a key role in the nation's journey towards independence. Visit the mausoleum where his body is embalmed and see his humble stilted house, which was built in the style of an ethnic village home. Continue to the One Pillar Pagoda, a unique 11th-century structure dedicated to King Ly Thai To's son. Visit Hoa Lo Prison and discover why it became known as the Hanoi Hilton during the Vietnam War. Next, visit the Temple of Literature, where Vietnam's royal family and elite society were educated for almost 700 years. Take a stroll beside the beautiful Hoan Kiem Lake and visit the temple in the lake known as Ngoc Son.

Enjoy lunch at KOTO – Know One Teach One – one of the best Vietnamese restaurants in Hanoi, which brings together a delectable array of culinary treasures from across the region for diners to savor. The menu celebrates Vietnam's rich culinary diversity, showcasing a variety of regional flavors.

Meet Phan Thanh Liem, the ambassador of Vietnam's pastoral arts, a seventh-generation member of a family with a tradition of making puppets and performing different stories through his private water puppet show at his house. You will have a chance to talk to him and his wife to learn more about the water puppets and his family tradition. Walk to the private theatre, enjoy the performance, just your group only, and have a hands-on experience of how to perform a puppet.

Water Puppetry is a traditional and unique Vietnamese Art. This highly entertaining form of theatre uses the water surface as a stage. Standing waist-deep in the water, the master puppeteers are hidden behind a bamboo screen. The technical virtuosity of the puppeteers is startling, and the music enticing. The entire atmosphere is truly enchanting. Many of the brief episodes relate to scenes of Vietnamese daily life.

Transfer back to Hanoi 36 Street Old Quarter. Take a cyclo ride through the Old Quarter, located between the Lake of the Restored Sword, the Long Bien Bridge, a former city rampart, and a citadel wall. The Old Quarter started as a snake and alligator-infested swamp. It later evolved into a cluster of villages with houses on stilts, and was unified by Chinese administrators who built ramparts around their headquarters. The Old Quarter began to acquire its reputation as a crafts area when the Vietnamese attained independence in the 11th century, and King Ly Thai To built his palace there. In the early 13th century, the collection of tiny workshop villages that clustered around the palace walls evolved into craft cooperatives, or guilds. Skilled artisans migrated to the Quarter, and artisans from the same village formed artisan guilds who performed similar services.

At 07:00 hours, depart the hotel for Luk Lak restaurant for dinner, a cozy, elegant place serving a variety of dishes that combine the best of traditional and modern Vietnamese cuisines.

Accommodations: Grand Mercure Hanoi Hotel

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 3 | HALONG & LAN HA BAY

Lan Ha Bay - A highly serene gulf-shaped bay spreading over a range of more than 7,000 hectares, of which 5,400 hectares are under the management of Cat Ba National Park, with about 400 small and large islands creating an enormous picture depicting the scene. Similar to Ha Long Bay, but the only difference is that all islands in Lan Ha Bay are covered with green trees or vegetation, even if it is a tiny island, like a peninsula. The waters here are home to hundreds of fish and other marine species. Larger marine animals in the area include seals and even three species of dolphins.

PRIVATE CHARTER LUXURY CRUISE ON HALONG & LAN HA BAY

At 08:00 hours, check out of the hotel and depart for Tuan Chau port, a distance of 100 miles, with a journey time of around 2.5 hours. Prepare to embark on an overnight cruise in beautiful Lan Ha Bay. A quieter, more remote area of Ha Long Bay, the picturesque inlet is filled with surreal scenes of limestone karsts and emerald waters, and is home to some of Vietnam's most iconic images. On arrival at Tuan Chau Marina, you are welcomed by the crew and transferred to the cruise by tender.

You arrive at the port to board the beautifully crafted sailing vessel, styled after a traditional Vietnamese junk boat. Discover one of the wonders of Vietnam on an overnight cruise in the majestic waters of Lan Ha Bay, a quieter and more remote part of the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Ha Long Bay.

12:15 Sip a refreshing welcome drink and join the crew for a quick safety briefing as the boat sets sail. Enjoy a leisurely lunch as the bay's dramatic beauty unfolds around you, taking in majestic views of the surreal landscape where hundreds of limestone karsts rise from emerald waters. After lunch, continue to Tra Bau, where you can enjoy swimming in the pristine ocean waters. In the late afternoon, you are invited to join a cooking demonstration to learn how to make a classic Vietnamese dish. Savour the cool sea breeze and the warm glow of twilight as the boat anchors for the night. Enjoy dinner on board, followed by an evening at leisure, where you can try your hand at squid fishing, stargaze from the sundeck, or spend a quiet evening in your cabin.

Accommodations: Orchid Classic Cruise (Private Charter - 1 Night)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 4 | DISEMBARK HALONG & LAN HA BAY - FLY TO HUE IMPERIAL CITY

Wake up to the peaceful sounds of the gentle breeze and water lapping against the boat in the early morning. Enjoy light refreshments, including tea, coffee, and pastries, in the dining room. For an energetic start to the day, head to the sundeck for an optional tai chi session. Then visit Cat Ba Island, where you hop on a van to explore Trung Trang Cave. Located in the beautiful

Cat Ba National Park, this intriguing cave was formed by natural weather and water conditions over 2,000 years and contains numerous stalactites.

Return to the cruise ship and check out of your cabin at 09:30, making the most of your last moments on board with a final, leisurely brunch and a tea ceremony before disembarking at 11:30 and transferring to your private vehicle.

Please note:

- Check-out time is two hours before disembarkation. After this time, you will not be able to access your room, but you can continue enjoying the beautiful bay views from the sundeck.

Accommodations: Silk Path Grand Hue

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 5 | HUE IMPERIAL CITY

Hue Imperial City – Set on the banks of the Perfume River, Hue was the capital of Vietnam between 1802 and 1945 under the Nguyen Emperors and later under French colonial rule. Since the early 19th century, it has been regarded as Vietnam’s center of learning, and its Buddhist traditions give the city a sophisticated air. Hue witnessed some of the most aggressive action of the Vietnam-American War, including the 1968 Tet Offensive, but despite this, many of the monuments to its imperial past remain, and UNESCO declared the city a World Heritage Site in 1993.

LEGACIES OF HUE IMPERIAL CITY

At 08:00, walk in the footsteps of Vietnamese emperors and trace their rise and fall in the central city of Hue. Begin with a private cruise along the Perfume River, then stop at Thien Mu Pagoda, constructed by Lord Nguyen Hoang in 1601. The pagoda is located on the Northern bank of the Perfume River, about 5km from Hue city center. Next, visit the Imperial Citadel, where the Nguyen Dynasty ruled from 1802 to 1945. The citadel still contains over 100 buildings, including the emperors’ living quarters in the Forbidden Purple City. Take a short drive to the tomb of Tu Duc, the Poet Emperor. A lover of romance and eastern philosophies, the emperor designed his own tomb within an enchanting garden of pine trees and frangipani trees overlooking a lake. Stop by an incense-making village to see how thin bamboo sticks are dyed and dried with sandalwood, cinnamon, or pine-scented powder to create ceremonial items used at temples and shrines across Vietnam.

Today's lunch will be a Seafood feast at Lap An Lagoon, surrounded by the imposing Bach Ma Mountain and the magnificent Lang Co Bay, regarded as the most impressive natural landscape in the poetic city of Hue. Leave the charms of Hue behind and embark on a scenic overland journey to Hoi An. The drive takes approximately three hours, excluding time for sightseeing en route. The journey will take you south from Hue along Highway 1A to Hoi An, over the spectacular Hai Van Pass (weather permitting). Just outside Hoi An, the highway meets the Hai.

Van Pass, meaning Pass of the Ocean Clouds. Here, the Truong Son mountain range cuts across the narrow center of the country. This creates a barrier to the cold air streams from the north, resulting in thick cloud banks over the peaks. The Pass has been a strategic military focal point during Vietnam's turbulent history, and from the top, there are views of the curve of Da Nang Bay. So relax and enjoy the views along the way on one of the most beautiful drives in Southeast Asia.

En route to Hoian, stop by the famous Marble Mountain in Da Nang, a natural masterpiece, a cluster of five mountains named after five elements: Kim (Metal), Moc (Wood), Thuy (Water), Hoa (Fire), and Tho (Earth). Or visit a traditional silk village in Hoi An, where locals preserve traditional values and share the cultural story of the Maritime Silk Road's origins in the 17th century. You will also learn about the process to produce soft silk, from growing mulberries, raising silkworms, to reeling and weaving silk, which will be recreated in the most specific and realistic manner. Drive to Hoi An, check into your hotel.

Tonight, enjoy dinner in old town Hoi An at the highly regarded Cargo Club, followed by a short walk with your guide around the pedestrian-friendly streets of the old town, illuminated by colorful paper lanterns. You'll then return to your resort for the night.

Accommodations: Almanity Hoi An Resort & Spa (2 nights)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 6 | HOIAN ANCIENT TOWN DISCOVERY

Hoi An - The ancient town of Hoi An is located south of Da Nang on the banks of the Thu Bon River. Occupied by early Western traders, Hoi An was one of Southeast Asia's major trading centers in the 16th century. Hoi An has a distinct Chinese atmosphere, with low, tile-roofed houses and narrow streets; the original structures of some of these streets remain almost intact. All the houses were made of rare wood, decorated with lacquered boards and panels engraved with Chinese characters. Pillars were also carved with ornamental designs.

THE DISCOVERY OF HOIAN ANCIENT TOWN, THU BON RIVER & CHAM RUINS

This morning, take a stroll through the winding streets of old Hoi An, where rows of vibrant yellow shophouses are adorned with multicolored lanterns, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once known as Faifo, Hoi An was the most important port in Vietnam during colonial and pre-colonial times. Due to the monsoons, many Chinese, Thai, Japanese, Arab, Indian, Dutch, French, and even Portuguese trading vessels had to stop here to wait for the wind to change direction. During the months between monsoons, these merchants built lodgings and trading houses. Their influence can still be seen today in the town's unique and varied architecture and culture. In more recent times, the port of Hoi An has continually silted up. It became impractical for larger modern vessels, so it was relocated to Da Nang, leaving Hoi An as an almost-forgotten museum of architecture before its more recent rebirth and redevelopment driven by tourism.

Admire the Old House of Tan Ky, an 18th-century merchant's house lovingly preserved for five generations and featuring Chinese and Japanese influences. See where the Chinese migrant community once gathered for meetings and social events at the Fukien Assembly Hall, all fine examples of the stylistic syncretism of this vibrant community, and walk through a 400-year-old covered bridge built in Japanese style. Then tap into your creative side and make your own traditional Hoi An lantern at a studio led by skilled artisans. After the workshop, take a boat for a ride along the Thu Bon River. Lined with trees and swaying palms, this peaceful waterway evokes visions of traditional rowboats, quiet pastures, and fishermen going about their day.

Option 1: This afternoon, you'll be driven to the 4th-century Cham religious sanctuary of My Son. Visiting later in the afternoon will help to avoid the morning crowds at this small site and provide wonderful, soft light for photography. My Son, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is located in a beautiful green valley surrounded by impressive mountains. While it is a small site, the ruins at My Son are the largest and most intact remaining in Vietnam.

Option 2: Drive to An Bang beach, with free time to walk along the white-sandy beach or swim. Late in the day, you'll return to the resort. Enjoy the evening on your own.

Accommodations: Almanity Hoi An Resort & Spa

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 7 | DEPARTURE DANANG - FLY TO HO CHI MINH CITY

Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon) – Ho Chi Minh City, also known as Saigon, is a frenetic Asian city of markets. Streets are clogged with scooters, street-side food stalls, foreign restaurants, office blocks, and shopping malls. It is Vietnam's economic powerhouse, and the rate of progress over the last few years has been remarkable. It is an exciting and exotic city where the pace of life never dims, and which is now looking forward with great optimism after its tumultuous 20th century. Though you may still experience some of old Asia, Saigon is a new Asian boomtown, and its inhabitants are poised to embrace the 21st-century advances.

After breakfast, you will depart Hoi An to Da Nang airport for your flight to Ho Chi Minh city, VN115 DAD/SGN 10:15/12:00.

SAIGON THROUGH THE LENS OF AN INSIDER

12:00 Upon arrival in Ho Chi Minh City. Be met and greeted by our local guide, then transfer to the Propaganda restaurant for lunch. Begin the afternoon with visits to two of the city's more impressive colonial-era structures: Notre Dame Cathedral, since 1880, and the Central Post Office, since 1891, a beautiful French colonial building influenced by Gustave Eiffel's style. Continue to the Reunification Hall, historically known as Independence Palace, and tour the former nerve center of the war for South Vietnam. Still largely maintaining its 1970s decor, the palace rooms are surprisingly spartan. The dank, reinforced basement has large-scale maps, communications equipment, and tunnels. Next, get on a pedicab, one person per pedicab, for an adventure through city landmarks and heavy traffic to the Emperor of Jade Pagoda, a Chinese-style pagoda built in the early 20th century. To this day, it exudes the haze of incense and buzzes with activity from Chinese worshippers. Transfer to the Caravelle Saigon for check-in—free time to explore the city on your own.

DINNER AT QUAN AN NGON

18:30 Group gathers at the hotel lobby, then takes a 10-minute walk to Quan An Ngon on 160 Pasteur Street for a Vietnamese dinner. Ngon, in Vietnamese, means “Delicious or Tasty.” It's an open-style kitchen with a street-eats concept, where the best Chefs on the street gather. You can find all Vietnamese dishes from the North, Central, and South of Vietnam at this restaurant.

21:30 Walk back to the hotel. Free time at leisure to have a drink at the famous Saigon Saigon Bar at the hotel or wander along the Nguyen Hue Walking Street.

Accommodations: Caravelle Saigon Hotel (2 nights)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 8 | HO CHI MINH CITY HISTORY LESSONS

Cu Chi Tunnels – The first & the longest tunnels dug by hand since the 1940s. Why? To combat better-supplied American and South Vietnamese forces during the Vietnam War, Communist guerrilla troops known as Viet Cong (VC) dug tens of thousands of miles of tunnels, including an extensive network running underneath the Cu Chi district northwest of Saigon. Soldiers used these underground routes to house troops, transport communications and supplies, lay booby traps, and mount surprise attacks, after which they could disappear underground to safety. To combat these guerrilla tactics, U.S. and South Vietnamese forces trained soldiers known as “tunnel rats” to navigate the tunnels to detect booby traps and enemy troop presence.

CU CHI TUNNELS UNCOVERED BY PRIVATE SPEEDBOAT

07:00 Transfer to Bach Dang pier, take a speedboat cruise for about one and a half hours northwest of Ho Chi Minh City to explore one of the region's most well-known wartime landmarks, the Cu Chi tunnels. The intriguing network of underground tunnels provided shelter and an effective source of infiltration for the Viet Cong during the later years of the Vietnam War. Catch a glimpse of life during the war as you crawl through tight, narrow passageways and into a series of caverns that include storage rooms, make-shift hospitals, and sleeping quarters. Meet Mr. Nam, a Cu Chi guerrilla who's still alive at the present, who survived the Vietnam War when joining the guerrilla force at the age of sixteen. Transfer back to Ho Chi Minh City by private deluxe coach, en route stop at the rubber tree plantation. Lunch at Hoa Tuc restaurant, a restaurant located in an old French opium refinery, serving contemporary Vietnamese cuisine.

Please note: The Cu Chi Tunnels are very narrow, confined spaces which may cause discomfort, particularly for those who experience claustrophobia, fear of the dark, irregular cardiac conditions, or similar health conditions. However, crawling inside the tunnels is entirely optional, and you can spend more time exploring above ground if you prefer.

SAIGON STREET EATS ADVENTURE BY MOTORBIKE

17:30 Gather at the hotel lobby, safety briefing, and get to know your driver. Explore the hidden charms of the city, ride through small alleyways, interact with locals, dine at 4 places, including Banh Xeo – Vietnamese Sizzling Pancake, Pho – Beef/Chicken Noodle Soup, Banh Mi – Vietnamese Baguette, and Seafood Feast, and enjoy local Saigon Special beer.

21:30 Back to the hotel. Free time at leisure to explore the city on your own.

Accommodations: Caravelle Saigon Hotel

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 9 | DEPART HO CHI MINH CITY - MEKONG DELTA CANTHO

Mekong Delta – The Mekong Delta is located in Cambodia and southern Vietnam, where the Mekong River flows into the South China Sea. The Mekong is one of the longest rivers in the world. It originates at the Tibetan Plateau and flows nearly 3000 km in a south-eastern direction. The Mekong Delta is generally regarded as beginning at Phnom Penh, Cambodia, where the Mekong River meets the Tonle Sap River and the Bassac River branches. The Mekong subsequently divides into six main channels, and the Bassac into three, forming the nine "dragons" of the outer delta in Vietnam. The delta comprises a vast triangular plain of approximately 55,000 km². It extends for about 270 km from its apex at Phnom Penh to the coast. The width of the delta near the coast is about 350 km, and the coastline is about 600 km long. Approximately 16,000 km² of the inner delta lies within Cambodia; the remaining 39,000 km² constitutes the southern tip of Vietnam. In Vietnam, the Mekong Delta is intensively developed for agriculture.

THE CALLING OF MEKONG RIVER, MY THO & OPTIONAL DONG TAM SNAKE FARM TOUR

After breakfast at the hotel, check out, then take a two-hour scenic drive to Tien Giang. Upon arrival at My Tho pier, board the charter boat cruising on the upper branch of the Mekong River. Visit the unique site of My Tho, Dong Tam Snake farm, an area of 12 ha, established on October 27, 1979, in an area full of mines and barbed wire left by the US army. The farm conducts scientific research, rears and conserves precious snake, medicinal plant, and animal species, produces traditional medicines, and provides first aid and treatment for people bitten by poisonous snakes in the region. Dong Tam Snake Farm has become a scientific center with great achievements in curing people. In 1989, it was awarded the title "Labor Hero" by the State.
