

SAIGON STREET EATS ADVENTURE BY MOTORBIKE

Welcome aboard! Prepare yourself for an exhilarating 4-hour Street Eats adventure on a motorbike, where you will dive deep into the vibrant heart of local life, nightlife, and an enticing array of authentic dishes. Your journey begins with a warm welcome from your friendly, experienced driver, who will share captivating stories and insights, enriching your appreciation for Saigon's culture. After receiving essential safety tips, you'll hop on the motorbike and set out for an unforgettable experience.

Glide through the historic Old French Quarter, a beautifully preserved area that showcases the rich heritage established by the French in the late 19th century. Your taste buds will awaken at Pho Hoa, a cherished local gem renowned for its legendary Vietnamese beef noodle soup, delighting diners since the 1960s.

Next, prepare to stimulate your senses at a lively Banh Xeo restaurant. You'll be mesmerized as chefs create vibrant, crunchy turmeric pancakes. Experience the joy of sampling fresh, home-grown vegetables and crafting your own spring roll, dipping it into a delicious secret sauce that elevates each bite.

The adventure continues at Xom Chieu, a bustling food market in District 4, where the lively atmosphere teems with countless food stalls serving locals every night. In small groups, you'll embark on a guided tour, savoring the iconic Banh Mi and refreshing yourself with Nuoc Mia, a delightful sugarcane juice that's simply irresistible. As you navigate through charming, hidden streets and alleyways known only to locals, you'll uncover the enchanting Chinatown of Saigon.

Your final stop is a family-run coconut ice cream shop on the street, where you'll indulge in creamy coconut ice cream, served in a fresh coconut and topped with crushed peanuts. As the day concludes and you ride back to your hotel, you'll be filled with incredible memories and flavors, completing a truly unforgettable adventure!
